Announcement

¶ The New Vancouver Journal is completed in this number of the Quarterly. A few reprints, in separate form and complete in one cover, are being made for the collectors of Northwest Americana. Copies may be obtained from the Printing Department, University of Washington, Seattle, at one dollar each.

¶ Large libraries throughout the country are among the first to renew their subscriptions for Volume VI, which begins with this number.

¶ Among the original source materials published by this Quarterly is another John Work Journal, complete in this number. It is especially important to the northeastern part of the state. The first settlement there, is told in this document. Mr. T. C. Elliott is rendering a valuable service in editing these valuable journals.
